Christmas Joy

One Christmas Eve, as late Christmas shoppers hurried along the street, a crippled young man stood on his crutches offering for sale copies of the 'Big Issue'. He looked happy, and his crutches were decorated with evergreens. One man greeted him with a cheerful smile, "Young man, of all people, you have so little to be happy about but you surely have the Christmas spirit." The young man replied "What's the use of putting on a sour face? Sure, I am homeless, poor and crippled, but that's no reason for looking glum. I won't get presents like other people at Christmas, but I can have fun, too. So I decorated my crutches just to make them seem special for Christmas."

For some of us Christmas is a time of great joy and celebration, for others the season will kindle sad memories and a yearning for happier times. For shops and superstores the Christmas of 2009 began in January and certainly many parents will be plagued by children wanting this year's must have toys and gadgets. For the human family Christmas began 2000 years ago with the birth of a very special child, a child who was to grow up knowing both joy, sorrow and poverty. A child who was given the name of Jesus and his destiny was to reveal God's love for each and every one of us and to become the Saviour of the world. Only Jesus can put Joy into our lives.

If we go out to buy or seek joy this Christmas, it will elude us. If we go out as did the seller of the 'Big Issue' to impart joy, we will find it. This Christmas, whether you have little or much, it makes no difference. It is your attitude that counts.

May God's blessing be upon you this Christmas.

Badgerbrook Primary School

The Autumn Term has been full of activities and experiences. The Badgerbrook choir took part in the annual Pet Service at St Andrew's Church, Jarrom Street in Leicester. This is always an interesting service, complete with a chorus of animals at various intervals! It was lovely to see so many children and their families freely giving their time on a sunny, Sunday afternoon to support the welfare of animals. Special thanks go to Miss Wolloff and her choir for performing so well. The Year 2 children lead our Harvest Festival this year and collected donations of tins and packets of food which were taken to Leicester Cathedral for the Welcome Project. Children and their families also donated shoe boxes of gifts for children in Romania.

The European Languages Week was a huge success thanks to detailed planning and preparation by the staff, in particular Mrs Kallquist, our Modern Foreign Languages Co-ordinator, and the enthusiastic participation of the children and many parents. We were very grateful for parental help in finding clothes for the children for the 'Dressing Up' day, and for the attendance of so many parents at the procession and display of work in the classrooms. The whole school also celebrated Diwali in school on Friday 16th October. Following a whole school assembly, the children participated in a Diwali activity in class and we now have some interesting and colourful displays in school.

Two of our teachers, Mrs Button and Mrs Kallquist, were selected to join an adviser and a few other teachers from the Local Authority to visit schools in Ukraine, during the half term holiday. The purpose of the visit was to learn about different styles of teaching Mathematics and share ideas with other leading professionals. This offered them a great opportunity for professional research. They have already shared much of what they learned with colleagues at Badgerbrook.

This term we have been offering School Meals Taster Sessions, giving parents the opportunity to sample food from our school meal service. Many parents came along to try the food. We also offered the opportunity to 'Buy one get Mum free!' with the younger children receiving a letter offering Mums or Dads (or Grandparents) the opportunity to check the quality of the food provided whilst eating a free school meal with their child. We were pleased with the take up.

The Thomas Estley Family of Schools – Thomas Estley Community College, Badgerbrook, St Peters, Cosby and the three Broughton Astley Primary Schools - has recently purchased a school minibus for use by all seven schools. This was possible through a grant given to the Family of Schools for collaborative work on Extended Services. It will be tremendously useful for transporting children to a variety of local events and venues at a greatly reduced cost.

We are delighted to report that Miss Smith, one of our Year 3 teachers, has given birth to a baby boy, Oliver. Mother and baby are doing well!

St. Peter's Church of England (Aided) Primary School

On September 29th 43 children and 4 staff set off for a 3 day residential stay in London. By 10.30 am we were in the Natural History Museum exploring dinosaurs, creepy crawlies and our planet. In the afternoon we visited St Paul's Cathedral where almost all children climbed and got to the top of the dome. After a night in Rotherside YHA we set off for a walking tour, starting in Parliament Square, continuing up the Mall to Buckingham Palace – just in time to see the changing of the guard. We then took a boat trip up the Thames to the Tower where we marvelled at the Crown Jewels and Henry V111's armour. The evening was spent in the theatre watching the spectacular "Lion King". On our final day we explored Egyptian mummies at the British Museum and famous paintings in the National Gallery. Our visit ended with a trip on the London Eye identifying all the places we had visited previously.

Now children are busy working on London Projects – writing reports, explanations, letters and leaflets linked to their visit. They will include posters, photographs and other drawings. Prizes will be given for the best project, the greatest effort, the best use of ICT and the most creative project.

All children really enjoyed this memorable experience. Parents too should be proud as comments were frequently made on the excellent behaviour of the group. Well done to all.

Hosted by District Councillor,
Karl Coles.

Gulliver's Travels at Harborough Museum 50 years through the lens of a Harborough Photographer

Gulliver Speight lived and worked in Market Harborough until the early 1950's. His studio was situated on the site of the Memorial Gardens. During his career he photographed many Harborough people in his studio. Some of these photographs are in the Harborough Museum collection and form part of this exhibition.

In addition Gulliver took some outstanding photographs around the town. These include a memorable photograph of the opening of the Cattle Market on Springfield Street in 1904. From his studio window he photographed the Harborough troops assembling in The Square in 1914. Ernie White, Cabinet member for Museums said 'Gulliver Speight's photographs are a fantastic resource and offer a glimpse of life in Market Harborough a hundred years ago.'

Within the temporary exhibition are examples of early photographic equipment, including some of Gulliver's own studio camera equipment. There is also the opportunity to try on some period costume and pose for a photograph in a mock up of Gulliver's studio.

In conjunction with this exhibition the museum is running a photographic portrait competition 'In the Frame' which is open to all ages. Competition entries will be on display at the museum during February 2010. Entries should be submitted to the museum between 3rd to 23rd January 2010. Museum visitors will be asked to vote for their favourite entry. There will be prizes awarded of photographic equipment for both categories.

For more information call in to the museum for an entry form or email: harboroughmuseum@leics.gov.uk

The exhibition will remain at Harborough Museum until 31st March 2010. Admission to the museum is free, opening hours are 10.30-4.15pm Monday to Saturday.

WHETSTONE ALLOTMENTS

Thanks to a lot of dedication, hard work, passion and compliance with the rules and regulations required, Whetstone now has Allotments. Land off The Dicken has been leased from Blaby District Council by Whetstone Parish Council and in a back to back arrangement leased to the Whetstone Allotment Association.

Chair of Whetstone Allotment Association, Eileen Jackson, was instrumental and the driving force behind this well much needed and required addition to Whetstone facilities.

The Allotment holders were able to commence planting in the spring and an official open day was held on 12th September.

Leicestershire Trading Standards Service urges consumers to be extra vigilant when shopping online in the lead up to Christmas. There are countless websites offering designer goods at very low prices, but the goods may not be delivered and often turn out to be poor quality and fake. Such websites are mostly located abroad, often in China and do not comply with UK consumer law. Getting refunds is impossible and secure payment companies don't guarantee to get you your money back either!

Head of the Trading Standards Service, David Bull, said: "Shop around before making a purchase. Research several websites and don't just assume that a website with 'UK' in the address is actually based in the UK. Leicestershire Trading Standards Service has received a number of complaints recently where this has not been the case. Check a number of sites and compare prices with high street retailers as well. If something seems too good to be true then often it is".

Some genuine brands such as UGG Boots and GHD put 'web checkers' on their sites. This allows the consumer to check if the website they are looking at is affiliated with the genuine brand or one of the known scam sites. It's worth using this if it is available. Remember to look at the wording of a website as in many unofficial ones the grammar or spelling may be incorrect particularly where the website is designed in a country where English is not the first language.

All online retailers selling in the UK need to comply with consumer protection legislation allowing a consumer a seven day cooling off period and to return goods for a refund if they are not happy with something they have ordered. By law UK websites must display a geographical address together with consumer cancellation rights. Check these are displayed on the website and read through them carefully before you make a purchase.

Be vigilant against the counterfeiters as they could ruin your Christmas.

If consumers think they may have been defrauded they should in the first instance contact Consumer Direct on (08454) 04 05 06

The Distance Selling Regulations stipulate (with rare exceptions) that consumers have the right to cancel 7 days after receiving their product if they change their mind so long as the product has not been used and it is in a re-saleable condition.

Section 75 of the Consumer Credit Act 1974 gives the consumer a right to a refund if purchasing via credit card and priced over £100.00.

Have Your Say Vicarage Lane Land

At the October meeting of Council it was reported, during the Public Participation section, that there was now limited access to the fields at the end of Vicarage Lane.

The fields had previously been enjoyed for many years by many parishioners and was now closed off. It was a loss of a well used amenity.

The landowner had reportedly closed off the land due to issues with livestock being disturbed by users and their dogs. It was not a public footpath or right of way.

The landowner could be contacted for views on allowing access, if there is enough public response to the issue.

Please let us have your views on the matter: -

Remembrance Sunday 8th November 2009

With so much emphasis these days on ASB and the attitudes of young people—bad manners and lack of respect—it is easy to forget that the perpetrators are in the minority. The majority of young people are willing, able and respectful participants in communities. This could not have been more ably demonstrated than on Remembrance Sunday, when young and old came together to remember those parishioners of Whetstone who have given their lives' during war.

With representatives from Church Lads, Boys and Girls Brigade, Guides, Scouts, Brownies, Cubs, Whetstone Youth Forum and The Blaby and Whetstone Boys Club marching with representatives from the Parish Council, District Council, Community leaders and Parishioners to the War Memorial to lay wreaths.

There were a few hitches on the day, the PA system had a mind of it's own and there were omissions from the order of service, however, these have been brought to the attention of the organisers and will be rectified in the future.

Probably the oldest participants were Harold Darker, 90 years of age who laid a wreath on behalf of the Baptist Church and Dennis Burrows, in his mid 80's, laying a wreath on behalf of the United Reformed Church.

Libby Cooper, Jade Bennett and Ben Hirst from B & W B C—Ellie Wolfe, Phobe Coles and Eleana Coles from Whetstone Youth Forum

"On Patrol"

Article by Pc Nick Ward

Hello to everyone & I start with some good news.

This year again saw a dramatic reduction in egg throwing incidents on the beat over the Halloween period & a noticeable reduction in the number of reported ASB reports.

I would like to thank all the shops who have again supported us in refusing the sale of flour & eggs for this period, as I feel sure this has a direct impact on such behaviour.

The one concern which has been raised on bonfire night was with traffic issues along the Blaby Bypass particularly outside the 'Vipers' rugby club. This is something that the Police & the club will look at for next year but I would like to pass on my thanks to the 'Vipers' staff who did an excellent job of preventing any disorder on site.

Whilst I am pleased to report that the majority of reported crime for Whetstone is reduced from this time last year, I would remind everyone to remain vigilant especially with Christmas so near.

One of the crimes increasingly being reported to us is that of shed burglaries. At this time of year many of you start to stock up with gifts & spirits for Christmas & naturally shut them in sheds & garages. With many sheds having a minimal degree of security it's not difficult for the burglar to break in. Take the time to have a look at the locks & fixings of your shed to see if you are adequately covered. Anyone wishing either advice on security or would like a shed alarm, please contact us at Blaby Police station & we will try to help.

Over recent weeks we have conducted regular patrols around the schools especially at leaving times. It is quite obvious from our observations that many parents are still parking irresponsibly simply to avoid having to walk the extra few yards to the school gates. A number of fixed penalty tickets have already been issued & further patrols are planned. Could I ask everyone who parks near a school premises to be considerate of other drivers & pedestrians; it is after all for everyone's benefit & safety.

And remember.... For every action there is an equal & opposite criticism.

To all residents of Whetstone that if they experience Anti social Behaviour or any other crime related matter to report it to us. For incidents requiring Police attendance please call us on 0116 222222 unless emergency where 999 can be used.
